LCN Most Outstanding ULC Award

The Lebanese Collegiate Network (LCN) is dedicated to recognizing and honoring the achievements of a University Lebanese Club (ULC) through the LCN Most Outstanding ULC Award. This prize includes a $500 monetary value and a perpetual plaque that includes an inscription of the ULC's name.

The Most Outstanding ULC Award is presented to a ULC with exceptional talent, creative ideas, and a strong dedication to promoting students' academic and cultural education and development.

Qualifications:

1. The ULC must be a member of the LCN per LCN Bylaws by the submission deadline.
2. The ULC must have representation attend the next LCN Convention to receive the award.

Please fill out the attached application and include a cover letter from your Faculty Advisor acknowledging your achievements. If your ULC does not have a Faculty Advisor, please include a cover letter from the ULC President.

The application includes:

1. A summary of one notable event your ULC hosted between March 2011 and January 2012 that sets you apart.
2. A summary of how your ULC promoted educational and academic development through events and collaborations in the same timeframe.
3. A summary of activities to keep your alumni involved in the same timeframe.

The foremost purpose of LCN is to foster, connect and develop Lebanese collegiate clubs, students and alumni within the United States. The LCN encourages the ULC's to connect with each other through LCN resources and events.
