Brief Biography:

My name is Vicky Haddad, I was born in Beirut, Lebanon on November 25th. I attended Notre-Dame de Jamhour till the age of 13 and then moved to the United States in September of 2000. I recently graduated from John Carroll University earning a Bachelor’s degree in Finance.

During my academic year, I had the opportunity to be on the board of the Middle-Eastern Student Association (MESA) at John Carroll University. I was also an active member and was elected treasurer for two years in a row. In addition, I was able to participate in planning events and fundraisers throughout the year.

After graduation, I took on a full time position in a Logistics company that takes care of ocean export/import throughout the world. My job entitles working with agents overseas and customers throughout the United States. I am able to use my fluency in Arabic and French to communicate with our customers and agents. I am looking forward to the new opportunities and challenges this field has to offer me in the future.

Along with my full time position, I find time to tutor and teach Arabic lessons. I also translate Proficiency State Tests for students whose English is their second language. I enjoy working and helping others through volunteer work and strive to make a positive difference in peoples’ lives.

2011-2012 LCN Board Nomination

Statement of Purpose: (platform of candidacy)

I was introduced to the Lebanese Collegiate Network (LCN) not too long ago, and was really impressed by the mission of the group and the programs they have. I am really excited to be a part of such an organization that brings young adults together despite their religious backgrounds and political views and aims to develop them academically and professionally.

I hope to serve as LCN Secretary for this upcoming fiscal year, 2011-2012. I believe my experience as Treasurer with John Carroll University's MESA club will assist me in serving LCN and what it has to offer to new and old members. I believe that my ability to learn new things will help me in this position. I would be honored to grow with this organization and contribute to the progress it has to offer. LCN is a wonderful organization and I would be pleased to be a part of it and be a part of its growth throughout the years. If elected Secretary I promise to serve this organization and its members to my best ability as prescribed in the LCN Bylaws.

Per LCN Bylaws:
Secretary

The Secretary shall administer all LCN related documents.

2.1 The Secretary shall guarantee the meeting agenda is ready and to be distributed to the Board no later than one day before the meeting.

2.2 The Secretary shall have the President review the meeting minutes and agenda before distribution.

2.3 The Secretary shall archive all LCN documents.

I look forward to becoming part of the LCN team and ensure you that I take your trust in my candidacy with great candor and respect.

Please submit this nomination form electronically to the LCN Board at nom@mylcn.org by March 15, 2011. All nominations submitted passed this date will not be accepted. Nominees must be present at the LCN Convention to be elected. No University Lebanese Club President may serve on the Executive Board during their term. Per Article X, Section 4 of the LCN Bylaws: "Candidates for the office of LCN President shall have served on the LCN Executive Board for at least (1) fiscal year."

Should you have questions, please contact any board member at the above email address.

Thank You and Good luck!
