Brief Biography:

I graduated from California State Dominguez Hills with a BS in Biology. While I was a student there, I was the co-founder and President of the Lebanese Social Club. I was also President of Phi Sigma Biological Honor Society. As a CSUDH student, I was the recipient of the Exceptional Contributions to the Biology Department, a member of the Honors Convocation and was on the Dean's list.

Statement of Purpose: (platform of candidacy)

I have been an active member of the LCN since its conception. I have attended every convention that the LCN has hosted. I had the opportunity to witness first hand the hard work and dedication the LCN Board members have portrayed towards the organization. During the 2009 LCN fiscal year, I chaired the LCN-Bader Committee. The commitment the board members give to this great organization has inspired me to take on a greater role within the LCN. In running for treasurer, I believe I can continue giving the LCN members the same professional pledge that board members before me have shown. I believe in the LCN and what it stands for. I would be honored to serve as your 2011-2012 LCN Treasurer.

2011-2012 LCN Board Nomination

Per LCN Bylaws:

The Treasurer:

- 3.1 The Treasurer shall produce and secure a board approved annual budget.
- 3.2 The Treasurer shall prepare monthly financial reports tracking the budget's status.
- 3.3 The Treasurer shall store all LCN financial documents and provide the Secretary a copy of such documents.
- 3.4 The Treasurer shall actively solicit donations, raise funds, and be responsible for all LCN related financial activities.
- 3.5 The Treasurer shall ensure the accessibility of all LCN financial documents

If elected, I will work with the LCN Board to ensure that the LCN budget will remain up-to-date, I will aim to increase the LCN donors and will work with the fundraising committees to raise money for the LCN.
