Brief Biography:

I was born in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia in 1989. My family and I won the Green card lottery in 1990 and moved to the United States.

I attended Arizona State University, and in May 2010 I graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing, a Minor in Spanish and a Certification in International Business. This Fall 2011, I plan on attending ASU again for a Masters in Health Innovation. During my time as ASU I was an active members of the Lebanese Student Association, where I led several events and was elected President in the Fall of 2009. While in the LSA, I heard about the LCN and attended the '09 and '10 Convention. This not only pushed me to be even more involved in my community as Lebanese, but in the LCN as well.

This past December, I joined the LCN Team as the VP of Membership. As current VP I was able to have 11 University Lebanese Clubs joined upon my start date, and I am very proud to say that we reached 18 ULC's this year. I also took the responsibility of the LCN ReCap (bi-annual LCN newsletter) and encouraged 13 ULC's to share their experiences and activities they were doing thus far.

During college I worked at Wells Fargo as an International Currency Lead Teller for two and a half years. Upon graduation, I began work with GE Energy and work as a Project Specialist; handling small projects for the Southwest Region.

Statement of Purpose: (platform of candidacy)

In addition to following the bylaws and constitution of the LCN, I also want to stay close to the 5 year strategic plan that we set and roll over every year. This will not only keep me close to the LCN in achieving its goals, but also fulfill the purpose furthermore. I also want to spread the membership more than just the West and East Coast. Currently, there are no subscribing members in the "middle" of the United States. I want to branch out and expose the LCN and its benefits to students in this area with these goals in mind:

- A. Increase ULC Membership to at least 25 by March 2012

Please submit this nomination form electronically to the LCN Board at nom@mylcn.org by March 15, 2011. All nominations submitted passed this date will not be accepted. Nominees must be present at the LCN Convention to be elected. No University Lebanese Club President may serve on the Executive Board during their term. Per Article X, Section 4 of the LCN Bylaws: "Candidates for the office of LCN President shall have served on the LCN Executive Board for at least (1) fiscal year."

Thank You and Good luck!
