Brief Biography:

My name is Anita Abdul-kairm and I stand true to a 1st generation Lebanese immigrant. I am a third year Nutrition major, inspired to heal and prevent diseases by the simplicity of nutrition. My experience in leadership has brought me to appreciate the beauty of service to gather, maintain, and evoke a creatively thriving community; its members are privileged to be apart of. High school was the start of my experience as a leader; holding the title of student body president allowed me to learn that a strong community driven by leaders with a core purpose to serve.

My first year of University I decided to explore other realms of what the campus had to offer besides their student government opportunities. I join the La Sierra Universities Drama team, coming in as complete foreigner with a fiery interest; I stepped out of my comfort zone and was casted in their spring Shakespearean play. I not only learned twisted poetry but the value in risk taking and the success it can bring for smooth adaptability into a new group, and the exploration of a new talent and new ideas.

Within the past couples years of my undergraduate studies I have developed a deeper affiliation with various ULC's in southern California. Supporting their events and fundraisers has lead me to develop not only thriving friendships but also LCN members I have enjoyed working with. The excellent opportunity to have been the LCN LA luncheon chair has strengthened my connections within southern California and has also brought familiarity with various ULC's in the United States.

Statement of Purpose: (platform of candidacy)

In my nomination for vice-president of events, I intend to gather your clubs, alumni, and potential members to express themselves and to make note to each other, and LCN, of what they have to offer.

My goals as VP of Events:

I will work to expand your professional networking events to new cities. I will also work on creating similar gatherings for student and under 21 members as well.

Also, I plan to aid in the development of the Alumni track by hosting events and mixers to maintain our connection. One goal for each event is to build attraction so that we will attract new members within each one.

I plan to follow the balance of professional and creative workshops, respected and honored dinners, in addition to the social and professional mixers at the 2012 LCN convention. The goal in planning the convention is to come closer to solidify a stronger connection to LCN ULC's and alumni and to make sure a strong board is going to be represented for the following year.

I look forward for the opportunity to work with the great LCN board, alumni, and members to make 2012 an epic year for LCN.
