Brief Biography:

Originally from Cleveland, Ohio I'm a 3rd year undergraduate student at the Ohio State University. I study International Relations and Diplomacy, Economics, and French.

My involvement at Ohio State extends beyond my ULC. I'm a student leader in two groups that I helped cofound—WISE (Working Internationally to Serve and Educate) and OAS (Organization of Arab Students). I also participate in Ohio State's community orchestra.

My involvement with my ULC began when I entered OSU freshmen year. As a part of Lebanese Student Organization (LSO) I've participated in a broad range of events. I've attended meetings, participated in multi-cultural get-togethers and even our Dabkeh Troupe.

In terms of work experience, I spent this past winter working with The New America Foundation in Washington D.C. I worked as a research intern in the Middle East Task Force under the American Strategies Program. I planned "speaker series," gathered and tracked daily news from the Middle East, and conducted research. Before my internship in Washington, I worked at Ohio State's recreational facilities. I work in Member Services. My daily tasks include: updating memberships, handling and organizing sports equipment, and helping new students register and become acclimated with our facilities.

Statement of Purpose: (platform of candidacy)

As part of the LCN I want to serve my Lebanese community by expanding and improving our relationship with new and current partners. I believe LCN plays an integral role in the lives of young Lebanese in America. A very important aspect of the collegiate network is its ability to build lasting friendship. However, another very important aspect of our mission, especially in this economy, is to connect the youth of LCN to career professionals. I will work to strengthen LCN's relationships with business and career professionals to expose college students and give them the ability to interact with the professional world. Additionally, I will continue to fulfill the PR duties such as media relations, drafting press releases and finding new organizations to partner with. As a nationwide organization it's imperative to keep our members up-to-date with what's going on in the "LCN nation." The Recap, Twitter, and Facebook are invaluable tools for disseminating information to our network. I will work tirelessly to make sure our methods are as innovative and efficient as they can be.

My Goals include:

1. Creating strong ties with our local ULCs to help advertise our nationwide events.
2. Foster strong relationships with educational and career professionals in order to help members establish strong networks.
3. Explore opportunities of further exposing our mixers and events through webcam streaming and text.

I look forward to your support of my nomination for VP of Public Relations, and invite you to contact me to clarify or expand upon any aspect of my nomination. I will be honored to serve you and LCN as Vice President of Public Relations.
