

Lebanese Collegiate Network
Emergency Motion
December 23, 2007

Whereas, "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" filled out the Lebanese Collegiate Network University Lebanese Club membership application completely and correctly,

Whereas, "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" is prepared to pay the $10 nominal annual dues required by the Lebanese Collegiate Network to be a subscribing member,

Whereas, "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" has viable representative for representation in the Lebanese Collegiate Network Legislative Branch,

Whereas, "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" accepted to have their website link posted on our website,

Whereas "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" is a non-political, non-religious organization and therefore does not conflict with the Bylaws or Constitution of the Lebanese Collegiate Network,

I, Sevag Sislian, VP of Membership, therefore move to accept "Lebanese Students at Rutgers University" application to become an official subscribing member of the Lebanese Collegiate Network and therefore an official voting member in the Legislative Branch of the Lebanese Collegiate Network as dictated by the Constitution and Bylaws.
